INTRODUCTION

The publication of this little volume, Genealogy of the Smith and Adams Family, marks the fulfilment of a desire that has been smoldering in the heart and mind of the Compiler for more than forty years.

The first reunion of the descendants of James and Jane Smith was held in the summer of 1903 at Winona Lake, Indiana. The call for this get-together was sounded by Uncle Paul Smith and James Edwin Smith. About 75 responded to the summons and such "a good time was had by all," that it was decided to make the reunion an annual event and Bourbon was selected as the place for the festive gathering. At this meeting, Hattie Graham read a poem, written by Rev. T. A. Graham, in which all the offspring of Grandfather and Grandmother Smith were mentioned. Names were read off in that paper that were strange to some of us and it stimulated a desire to know more about this rapidly growing family, and at the third reunion, 1905, held at Winona Lake, plans were laid and funds raised for the making of a Family Record Book in which would be recorded the vital statistics of all the descendants. The writer was elected secretary and given the responsibility of making the book, securing the facts and recording them.

Many scores of letters were written, dozens of homes visited to examine Family Bibles, and U. S. Census and Pension Bureaus at Washington, D. C., were consulted; but in spite of all this research there were many blank lines, lines yet to be filled when, in 1908, we surrendered the job to more efficient hands and came to Puget Sound to search for the Fountain of Youth.

In 1932 Emerson Graham sent out a call to that part of the family that had migrated to the Pacific Northwest to meet in Tacoma for a reunion. Fifty-two were present at this meeting and a branch association was organized and meetings have been held annually since that initial gathering. About 175 of the descendants of James and Jane Smith including their families, now live in the Pacific Coast states and the western provinces of Canada; and because of the great amount of territory over which the family is scattered; from Pennsylvania to New Mexico and from California to British Columbia and Saskatchewan, it has been deemed advisable to issue this book to help all of us to better know the rest of the family.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

2077813

The Publishers of this book are truly grateful to the many cousins who have so generously co-operated in helping us to secure statistics that otherwise we would not have been able to obtain, and a more personal note of appreciation is due Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Martin, of Indiana, who brought the "Big Record Book" along when visiting their relatives in Washington in 1935. (We spent several hours copying data from the Book into our record.)

DEDICATION.

Sacred to the memory of our beloved President, Emerson E. Graham, who has gone to the Great Reunion in Heaven, this book is dedicated.

ADDITIONS and SUBTRACTIONS

Some errors that have been detected and some other items that were reported to us too late to be included in the family sketch to which it belongs. The number at the beginning of each of the following items refers to the sketch in which the error or omission occurs. Please turn to it and read it in connection with the correction as stated on this page.

S-6 Ula Flitcraft married Lee Wanamaker in 1909. They live in Indiana Harbor, Indiana.

S-14 Abigail should be spelled A-B-I-G-A-I-L. That's the way we spelled it in sketches Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 & 12. Look in your Bible at 1st Chronicles 3: 1, and see how they spelled it in King David's time.

S-27 Mrs. Alice Elliott, nee Brown, died March 9, 1947, at the Methodist Home at Warren, Huntington Co., Ind. Burial at Oakwood Cemetery, Warsaw, Ind.

S-29 CLARISSA JANE GRAHAM, nee Smith, was born in Medina Co., Ohio.

S-44 James Acheson Graham died Sept. 7, 1949. Buried at San Bernardino, California.

S-52 Warren Hazen saw service during World War 2, in the Maritime Service as a fireman.

S-71 Thomas Ashby Graham, born Oct. 7, 1949 in California.

S-97 Wendell John Mowell Graham, Jr., born July 19, 1949 at Seattle, Wash.

S-136 James Bodin Hart, born Aug. 4, 1948 at Camas, Wash.

S-137 Christopher Lee Reed, born Nov. 12, 1948 at Los Angeles, California.

S-147 Byron Hugh Campbell Howard, born May 23, 1949 at Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada.

S-152 Cora Ellen Ancell, nee Hart, was legally divorced from Mr. Ancell, and on Aug. 27, 1949 was married to Don K. Purcell at Centralia, Wash.

NAMES of WOMEN

The Maiden Name of each married woman is given in the Title Line of each sketch in this book, where it has been possible to secure that information. If she is a descendant of the Smith clan, you will find the notation, "Parents: see S-67" (or such number as correctly refers to the sketch of her father and mother.) Turn to that number right away and get wise to your relatives. In the cases of men and women that have married into the James Smith tribe, the names of their parents are included in their own sketch.

Husband Corporal JOHN PARKHURST

S-1

Born in 1752 Married December 3, 1772, at Morristown, New Jersey. (Marriage date verified by church record.) Died May 13, 1832.

In the records of the U. S. Pension Bureau. at Washington, D. C., is the statement of the military services of John Parkhurst, from which these excerpts are quoted.

He enlisted in the American Army for service in the Revolutionary War Oct. 30, 1775 at Morristown, N. J., in Captain Silas Howell's company of the First New Jersey Regiment, commanded by Colonels Lord Stirling and William Wins. Was in the expedition to Canada. This enlistment terminated in September, 1776. He re-enlisted on January 10, 1777, and served as Corporal in Captain Silas Howell's company, First New Jersey Regiment, Colonel Matthias Ogden, commanding. He received an honorable discharge in the summer of 1777. While a resident of Lanville, Columbia county, Pennsylvania, April 15, 1818, he was allowed a pension.

Wife LETITIA HATHAWAY

Born 1752. Have been unable to find record of death, but Pension Bureau states that her application for pension made March 22, 1837, was allowed while she was residing at Fishing Creek, Columbia Co., Pennsylvania. (Columbia county was later divided and Danville became the county seat of the new Montour county, while Fishing Creek is about 30 miles north-east of Danville in the area that is still named Columbia county.)

CHILDREN

Twelve children were born to this union, nine of whom lived to maturity. Only of the three oldest have we found record of their birth.

Abigail, born May 14, 1774, See S-2

Mehetabel, born March 20, 1776.

Sarah, born June 21, 1778.

(Compiler's Note: Correspondence from Mrs. L. J. Hilton, of St. David, Arizona, contains the statement that her great-grandmother's maiden name was Keturah Catherine Parkhurst, born in New Jersey, Feb. 25, 1781, but that she does not know the names of Keturah's parents, 'Spose she might have been No. 4 at John & Letitia's?)

Husband THOMAS ALBERT GRAHAM S-70

Born Dec. 29, 1864, in a Methodist parsonage, in Corunna, Indiana. Married Nov. 17, 1891, in Marshall Co., Ind., by Rev. D. V. Williams. Died Feb. 9, 1934, at Tacoma, Wash. Buried in Mountain View Cemetery. Parents: See S-29

He was converted as a young man and entered the Methodist ministry in North Indiana Conference in 1891; transferring in 1906 to Puget Sound Conference, (later known as Pacific Northwest Conference.) He served in the Methodist ministry for 42 years, retiring in June, 1932. Through the illness and suffering of the last few months of his life on earth he put to test the gospel he so long preached and found it adequate.

My Testimony.

Rev. Thomas Albert Graham

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Jesus is my atoning Lord, He saves me by his grace, He is my strength and my reward, My Rock and Hiding Place. | 2. He sought me with his dying Love, When I was lost in sin: He sent his Spirit from above, And made me pure within. |
| 3. He shares my burdens, hears my prayers, And soothes my aching heart, He gives me comfort in my cares, And bids my fears depart. | 4. I'll serve him while he gives me breath, And then what e're may come; He'll take me in the hour of death To my eternal home. |

HARRIET ALICE GRAHAM (Hattie, to us.) S- 91x

Born July 6, 1867, near Leesburg, Kosciusko Co., Indiana. Parents: See S-29

Hattie has devoted the major part of her life in being helpful to someone in need of her ministrations. She has denied herself of many things that normally come into the lives of most women that she might care for her mother, her brothers, and many others of the family, and has shown a true Christian spirit in so doing. In the 3rd chapter of Proverbs we read, "My son, (daughter,) forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments; for length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee." According to the date shown above, Hattie has not only gone beyond that much craved age of three score and ten, but has safely passed the "four score years," promised to those of exceptional strength, by a year and a half, because, in our opinion, the Eternal God is pleased with the strength of her unselfishness and beneficence, and one of these days she will be hearing Him say, "In-as-much as ye have done it unto one of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

(The following two paragraphs are copied from the Warsaw Daily Times, Sept. 21, '45.)

Private (first class) James R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smith, of 503 North Columbia Street, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroic achievement on April 16 at Neuhaus, Germany. The citation reads as follows: "Pfc. Smith of the 92nd Cavalry Reconnaissance Squadron, Mechanized, who was pinned down by heavy machine gun and small arms fire with other members of the platoon, heard one of his comrades who had been seriously wounded call for help. With total disregard for his own safety, Pfc. Smith voluntarily left his position of cover and proceeded to the aid of the wounded man and rendered first aid, after assisting his evacuation to a place of cover. Due to Pfc. Smith's bravery and initiative the life of his comrade was saved."

Thirty minutes after the action occurred Jim was wounded in his right wrist and was hospitalized in England. About two months later he was returned to the United States for treatment at Kennedy Hospital in Memphis, Tenn.

daughter of James Robert Smith and wife, born June 19, 1950. (Indiana)

JAMES ROBERT SMITH was born Aug. 14, 1923, (correcting date given at first of this sketch.)

In the scrimmage in which he was wounded, the platoon was being machine gunned by Germans located in the up-stairs of a building. Jim felt a bullet crash through his helmet so close to his scalp that he thought he had been hit. He raised his rifle to return the fire and was unable to pull the trigger and it was then he learned that he had been wounded in his wrist. He feels he was indeed lucky to be "little of stature," for had he been an inch or two taller that bullet that plowed through his helmet would have been his end.

When the Stork rang the phone in the parsonage in Wawaka, Ind., he said he and Baby Eddie would arrive quite pronto. Then the Rev. Papa Paul did a little phoning on his own account. Just one twirl of the dial and the State Hiway Police came with sirens screaming. The 35-mile race in the Paddy Wagon to the hospital in Warsaw was won by the Patrol, and Paul and Jean got through the door of the hospital as the Stork was sighted coming into the city from the north.

Life's Happiest Hours.

Best, I guess,
Was the old "Recess."---
'Way back there's where I'd love to be---
Shet of each lesson and hateful rule,
When the whole round World was as sweet to me
As the big ripe apple I brung to School.

Husband Max Vernon Vaughn

S-161

Born April 13, 1901 at Atwood, Kosciusko County, Indiana. He began his schooling in the town of his birth. He moved to Skagit County, Washington, with his parents in the fall of 1908 and for four years attended school at Ehrlich where his father was the instructor. In May, 1912, the family moved to Sedro Woolley. He graduated from high school in the class of 1918. He attended College of Puget Sound, at Tacoma, two years and then entered University of Washington, Seattle, for his junior year. He went east for a course of Bible and Religious Education, at Chicago Evangelistic Institute, and while in Chicago he was married March 15, 1926. After returning to the north-west in 1929, and while employed by the Pacific Telephone Company, in Seattle, Max took spare-time study at the U. of W. and graduated in 1939 with a Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in Chemistry. His big hobby is raising prize-taking rabbits and showing them at County and State Fairs and Rabbit Shows, which, along with his regular work with the Telephone Co., makes long days. He has been with this Company since 1929.

Parents: Lynn Downing Vaughn & Minnie Louella Smith. Birth is registered with the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Indianapolis, Ind., Volume No. 1320, Certificate No. 19101.

Wife Marguerite M. Anders

Born Dec. 30, 1900 at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Received her education in the schools of her home city. Was employed as a sales lady in the Marshall Field Stores, in Chicago. After they moved to Seattle, she again took her place behind the counter at Frederick & Nelson, a division of Marshall Field & Company. Active in Delphian, improvement and garden clubs.

Parents: Daniel Albert Anders & Mattie Fuhrer

P. S.- S-161, Marguerite's full name, before Max met her, was Marguerite Missouri Anders. She graduated from Cedar Rapids High School in 1918. Attended Cedar Rapids Business College and Coe College. In Delphian Society she completed two courses in Education for Women. Red Cross instructor during World War II. Her mother's maiden name was Madeline Elizabeth Fuhrer, even if her nephew does call her "Aunt Mattie." Max graduated from the U. of Wash. in 1938.

The first of these is the Vindhya Group, which is a very important geological formation in the region. It is composed of a variety of rocks, including sandstone, shale, and limestone. The Vindhya Group is known for its rich fossil content, particularly in the form of brachiopods and bryozoans. The rocks of the Vindhya Group are generally of the Silurian age, and they are found in a wide area of the Indian subcontinent.
